Mr. and Mrs. Fleming KELLY

Mr. and Mrs. PERELAKY also came to the second part of the Foreign Ministers Conference. I greeted Mrs. PERELAKY, but again acted very reserved in order to prevent a closer contact with her. I did not meet Mr. PERELAKY. Afterwards, Mrs. PERELAKY took the initiative in making a contact with me. I spoke with her only once in the presence of Mr. KENNEDY, when she came to the latter as we sat together at the Press House bar. The PERELAKY couple again had repeated contacts with the Press Journalists, and showed great interest in remaining in contact with them. One afternoon they having a very long discussion with GOODMAN and TALL and, afterwards, I thought that they must certainly have been talking to them. Mr. GOODMAN and TALL later came up to me as I sat at the bar with KENNEDY. They told me that they had talked with PERELAKY about me, and that he warned them against having too much contact with me because I was an American Agent. I was surprised and started to go to PERELAKY and read him off (at least this was what I intended). GOODMAN and TALL told me to let it drop and TALL added:

"You know, you shouldn't be at all angry about such a charge (advertisement). Even if we had been suspicious of you up to now, the opinion is just what the Communists say something like that about a person. It is the last straw when they say something like that. It is not a person, but a person's name. Now that about a person, then everyone will work for him. So that is the only thing that they say to you. Do you think that we don't know that they will watch who sits with you and who talks with you, and that they have to submit reports on it. That is the only reason that we receive them, and talk with them, and introduce them to people, and so on. We will be sure on this point in my advertisement, complete report."

There will be more on this point in my advertisement, complete report.
